Via ECF

Dear Judge Abrams:

I represent the plaintiff in the above-captioned matter.

I have conferred with opposing counsel, and it is the position of all parties that no conference is needed at this time.

Should Your Honor still wish to hold one, counsel for all parties are prepared to make themselves available by telephone this coming Friday, March 17, at 4:00 p.m.

Having called chambers this morning, I believe that the above time and date would be convenient for the Court.

Application granted. No initial status conference shall be held in this matter until the pending motion to dismiss is resolved, or until the parties otherwise request one. Given that the newly filed motion to dismiss moots the previously filed motion, the Clerk of Court is respectfully directed to terminate the motion pending at Docket No. 10.

Respectfully,
/s James M. Maloney
